We've come a long way from nowhere
The road was often paved,
With tears and pain

Whenever I got lost
You were always there
Through it all
You never once complained

There were times
I know you thought
The sun would never find us

Sometimes I felt that same way too
Now it looks as if all
The hard times are behind us

One by one
Our dreams are coming true
(One by one)

Love finds it's own way
Through the darkest night
Love finds it's own way
It needs no guiding light

Whoa, oh
It only needs two people
With a dream and endless faith

And given time
And a little patience
Love finds it's own way

I know you must have pushed
Aside your feelings
When down inside you thought
You'd fall apart
And if it hadn't been for your believin'
We might still be stumblin' in the dark

Now we're standing on the threshold

Of a new beginning
The doors of life are opened wide

For once in our life
We're finally winnin'
All because love is on our side

Love finds it's own way
Through the darkest night
Love finds it's own way
It needs no guiding light

Because love finds it's own way
Through the darkest night
Love finds it's own way
It needs no guiding light
