Not an enemy but a friend to hate
Im fast to cash in on the sympathy date
Sill I pass the time so many ways to cope
But it shouldn't have me feeling like a dope
But I hope you're up for the challenge
This chemical imbalance has me beat
And now Im right across your street
Blasting the past now were rewriting history
To your misery
I don't wanna play this game
I don't wanna play this game no more
Drop the ball (play)
Want it all (mine)
Right behind (next)
Leave you (time)
It comes with a hitch coming last in line
Im pulling off a switch shit blows my mind
Im rolling on the path of the wicked and cruel
And I aint ever gonna break that rule
You damn fool
Youre up for the challenge
This chemical imbalance has me beat
And now Im right across your street
Blasting the past now were rewriting history
To your misery
Setting it straight
No more fucking issues this time
