Find me here and I will remain
With eyes so clear and jaded, you're all I see
Blame my fear and I'll play the game
Will you still care tomorrow, will you still breathe
Still I move inching closer to
A face so pure and hated
You were never ever there
Followed your stain
To bleed my own
Swallowed your name
And now my stone
Find me here and I will remain
With eyes so clear and jaded
You're all I see
Blame my fear and I'll play the game
Will you still care tomorrow?
Will you still breathe?
Followed your stain
To bleed my own
Swallowed your name
And now my stone
I feel nothing at all
I feel you every single day
I feel nothing at all
I feel you every single day
