Black the tape this time
Cause heads are gonna roll
Where the fucks my rep?
I've tossed it out the window
Let it go and take the hint
A bad taste in my mouth and
Nowhere to spit it
A tease in her Gs and the sleaze in the bar
Chasing down that dream
To see her name like a superstar
Turn those bills to pills in a trade so slow
Now don't you feel sick
Dead is the mind you know
Remains
A shell to the world you show
Dirty and alone
I tell you to come (come) now don't you dare listen
Exhibition of shame, a mission
Got a steal of a deal only to rate
You're panting like a sick little prick
But couldn't penetrate
Locked like a detox, 28 days
Giving guys a raise and eyes a glaze
You're lighting up like a fire to a blaze so slow
If I could only recognize the monster you became I've heard all the promises and all the lies you demonstrate
Cry
And let it go
Why? You gotta act this way
And that's why
You won't ever be the same
