The path I walk decides my fate
This curse will only burn my faith away
The light before me starts to fade
The hours turn to days
It will not end this way

My hatred runs inside these veins, yeah
I will not run, I will not fall
Coz we're in this together
I will not run, I will not fall
Coz we're in this together, yeah

The fires of destiny await
You sold your soul in time for me to take your place
For your sins, you won't be saved
For you it ends today
You found your resting place

My hatred runs inside these veins, yeah, yeah
I will not run, I will not fall
Coz we're in this together
I will not run, I will not fall
Coz we're in this together
I will not run

I will not run
Coz we're in this together
I will not fall
Coz we're in this together
I will not run
