She feels the tug of love
Young and impetuous
She feels her weak side and it's gaining strength on her
She's giving in to these dangerous dark desires

What about conviction?
The stand that you took so proud
Where is it now when you need it most?
What about conviction?
The stand that you took so proud
Where is it now when you need it most?

She lets her guard down
And lets him around
To have his say and have his way
She feels her weak side and his clawing mercy

Damn all this anxious hope

There's nothing to be afraid of
