They stole our minds and gave us machines
We smiled in the cold face of convenience
As our lost little souls drifted into space
We drugged our bodies just to feel safe Live on your feet not your knees
Do what you want, Do what you please, Oh do what you please
The time is near and getting close Soon we'll all have a disease

The time is right and getting close
We'll all be just like ghosts
They warp you and shape you with slavery in mind
Until you just fall in line

The kids are hungry and underfed, over starved,
empty and dead
The time is right to gorge and feast, to rise above and kill the beast
The stage is set and it's ready to break
The spines and minds of the frauds and fakes
Anger is an energy, and hate can be great in the right mind state

Hordes of hungry, starving souls Reaching and begging with hate in their eyes and scum in their bowls
This is what you get when you give up control
The time is near and it's getting close, soon we'll all be just like ghosts
People are starved and underfed, overloaded with options in a world of dead

The time is right and getting close
We'll all be just like ghosts
They warp you and shape you with slavery in mind
Until you just fall in line

The kids are hungry and underfed, over starved,
empty and dead
The time is right to gorge and feast, to rise above and
kill the beast

The stage is set and it's ready to break
The spines and minds of the frauds and fakes
Anger is an energy, and hate can be great in the right
mind state
