And I've crossed my heart
And I've bit my tongue long enough to know this person
I've become
I've kept my place and I've tried to save
Any part of me
Whatever it might be

When you're leaving its just to say,
"Now let me hold you and don't leave me."
I'll break this down for you
In black and white
To see
Never forget, but this is time to let you go.

I swear its not what you think
This place confuses me
I swear its not what you see
I swear its not what's meant to be
This place confuses me

You're far to go
Your every word, like the sounds of our memory come down
Well, listen, I'm on your side
I'll let my words go, they can't be heard

I'll grow to something more.
Cross my heart
I'll grow to something, something more.

Just close your eyes
Just close your eyes and count to three
Keep your eyes on me

Whatever brought you to me?
You're just so beautiful tonight
You're living in me, and I'll never ever be the same
Will you forgive me?, Just one more time, pull this down
You're so good
I just can't shutdown control.
