ive travelled around this world of our seen many a different hat in Spain they wear the sombrero in America the baseball cap but the biggest laugh that i did get was when i went to rome , there was a man out on a balcony with a half ball on his dome

chorus

oh pope john paul wears half a ball , to hide his baldy
heed
they say that he'll still have it on , when hes lyin deed i wonder if he'd wear it if he knew when it was ho that the ball was kicked by michael mols into the celtic goal

oh the soldiers they wear helmets , to protect their head and your granny to keep warm wears a nightcap tae her bed in scotland theres the pipers , their busbys looking braw
but you've got to laugh at pope john paul cos' he wears half a ball

heed
they say that he'll still have it on , when hes lyin deed

oh the pope he came to glasgow and kneeled down to kiss the ground a little boy ran up to him and the crowd were struck dumbfound the little boy then raised his foot and kicked the half a ball

he said im soory mister pope man i was tryin to score a goal

oh pope john paul wears half a ball , to hide his baldy heed
they say that he'll still have it on , when hes lyin deed
that the ball was kicked by michael mols into the celtic goal i remember in the papers it read king billy was gay but i wish those lying reporters would report on the present day they try to make us proddys out to be a laughing stock when the tims they worship a man in a half maw beads and a long white frock

they say that he'll still have it on , when hes lyin deed
