When I come home
You telephone, and say
You're waiting for me.
I ask you why, I hear you cry, but You're still waiting for me.

Chorus:
Someday
You'll be shedding your tears
To cry over me
Someday
I'll be losing this fear.
Now I'm alone
You telephone and tell me you don't need me
I ask you why
You tell me lies and say the truth would hurt me.

Chorus
Someday
You'll be shedding your tears
To cry over me
Someday
I'll be losing this fear.

Down in the streets where lovers meet
That's where I'm waiting for you.
Oh! In the streets, where lovers meet.
I'm still waiting for you.

Someday
You'll be shedding your tears
To cry over me
Someday
I'll be losing this fear.
