(Chorus) x2

These days, you gotta be strapped I'm already knowin ain't nobody got my back these days you gotta be down who said it was easy claiming Dogg Pound

I believe I got good skills we been makin music since we were kids its all I wanna do, for life keepin it real until the day I die I stay funkish in my way continue to mash and dont forget to pray I keep my hand on my steel because I love my life and I always will whatever people say to me I take it in stride I'm thinkin negro please If you really don't know me then you best back up, I suggest strongly they started this DPG until the day I D-I-E for my L-I-F and E no matter where I look thats all I see and I know...

(Chorus) x2

Many women cling to me I think it's because they see me on BET Cause everybody knows my name All the police think I'm servin game jealous niggaz call us out but I don't worry long as I hear their mouths If ever they decide to kill Tou better be prepared cause I know I will I think I can guarantee You don't wanna be standin next to me before my final curtain call I feel safe sayin it won't be long if we bump this in the streets or even at some party you niggaz really can't see me my request is that you stop trying before I let go...

Chorus x2

[Daz Dillinger]

Everyday, the 45 stays on deck for whoever I bustin takin now bowin down never gotta watch my back for these coppers as well as the niggaz that I kick it with they stick you faster than these bitches will since I'm pimpin everybody wants my riches and I can't keep a dime for buyin weed yakin everytime I smoke constantly and it calms for me from commitin the murders so I chill and puff the herb Who gets my back nobody If little giant gaudy layin niggaz down at the homey's party always be goin crazy I guess we are bein who we are really say the nigga gotta be a star I gots tah get mine and if I'm blastin its my destiny if I die then it was meant to be intentionally worry stressin no guessin your profession when the murder take place it was self protection [Chorus] - 4X to fade
