Listen to the music in our ears Drifting in the sounds that we hear No one knows that both of us are here Singing out, singing out

Silence

I don't want to hear that noise Only you can do it now Feeling What I can't put into words Only you can do it now

Lovers turning in the atmosphere Suddenly our bodies disappear Now the two of us have lost our fear Singing out, singing out!

Silence I don't want to hear that noise Only you can do it now Feeling What I can't put into words Only you can do it now

Listen to the music in our ears Now we're drowning out the sound

Silence I don't want to hear that noise Only you can do it now Feeling What I can't put into words Only you can do it now

Silence I don't want to hear that noise Only you can do it now
