With a little glance you tell me that you're gone
I always knew this was nowhere you belong
Follow your dreams my darling
Don't you let them go
When you find your home, will you let me know

If I was pollen rising from the dew
Then I'd catch the wind and blow right on to you
If I was cotton threaded up somewhere
Then I'd make sure I was in the clothes you wear

You're loveable
So loveable
I could not explain a thing to anyone but you
To anyone but you

I wrote a letter t'every town
Across America to track you down
I miss your smile and I miss the sound
Of your laughter

You followed your dreams my darling
And I don't bear a grudge
The only prayer I have is that you stay in touch

If I was pollen rising from the dew
Then I'd catch the wind and blow right on to you
If I was cotton threaded up somewhere
Then I'd make sure I was in the clothes you wear

You're loveable
So loveable
I've waited all my life for someone just like you
For someone just like you

Even if you're never mine I'll always be with you
I'll always be with you
