"Rhythm Of Your Love"

Listen for the sound of your
Heart beneath your skin
You're standing tall
It's the end but that's Where I begin
And should you decide
To give your life away
Welcome to the other side
It will blow your mind
And you will come around anyway
The rhythm of your love will make you bleed
The rhythm of your love is what I need
The rhythm of your love is a golden crown
The rhythm of your love comes a tumbling down
So love takes it's toll
A dream you never had
Now you're moving slow
See them smile ... it's so sad
Oh! You gotta make up your mind
Before they steal your heart away
Man, are you in or out?
Up or down? ...
You'll live to fight another day
Head down
Eyes closed
Here I come!
