What can I write
What can I write
What can I say
What can I say
Golden oceans
Of jealous desert sands
As ancient evening
Spreads across the land
CHORUS:
Living loving
Ancient evening
Seeing
Believe in your love
So after I die and
I leave here
Will time, wind and
Thieves ravage me

Place my body
Beneath the desert sand
And pray that the queen
Welcomes me
CHORUS:
Color the black
In my soul white.
From out of the dark
Comes the daylight.
Untold treasures are
Hidden memories
Of ancient evening
That you have given me.
