This is your time, this is your day
In your heart I feel the answer
Keeping this whole, I locked it away
Now they can't hold me down

With a touch of your hand I believe in you
You lifted me up just like I knew you would do
Holding you close can take my pain away
With a touch of your hand I'm burning like a flame

I drift on the water, melt on the sand
In your eyes I see the answer
Live for each moment, rise up and stand
I'm not the lonely one

With a touch of your hand I believe in you
You lifted me up just like I knew you would do
Holding you close can take my pain away
With a touch of your hand I'm burning like a flame

Come on, just walk towards me
I'll hold you in my arms
We'll share these times together
I shiver in your charms
Come on, just walk towards me

Holding you close can take my pain away
With a touch of your hand I'm burning like a flame
With a touch of your hand I believe in you
You lifted me up just like I knew you would do
Holding you close can take my pain away
With a touch of your hand I'm burning like a flame

With a touch of your hand I believe in you
You lifted me up just like I knew you would do
Holding you close can take my pain away
With a touch of your hand I'm burning like a flame

Touch of your hand I believe in you
Lifted me up just like I knew you would do
Holding you close can take my pain away
With a touch of your hand I'm burning like a flame
