"Greetings...goodbye"

This is me saying goodbye to you
From this day forward I won't think about you
This is me placing a mental blanket over our times together

Goodbye to you goodbye to us
If somehow our lives intersect in the future
Fate will decide the outcome
Goodbye to you goodbye to us
If somehow our lives intersect in the future

It has to be this way a selfish way to act
But it's my only remedy in dealing with you

And the memories of you will end and be cast away
As the ink from this tool of my thoughts runs out
So I'll use this pen and it's insides
To conjure the thought of you one more time

So here I leave you with goodbye
And the memories of you will end and be cast away
As the ink from this tool of my thoughts runs out

I'm saying goodbye
And the memories of you will end and be cast away
As the ink from this tool of my thoughts runs out

You has these beautiful eyes
The way you carried yourself
You made the impossible possible you opened my heart

And shine light on the darkness I fell for you
You can't just break me in two
And the memories of you will end and be cast away
As the ink from this tool of my thoughts runs out

So here I leave you with goodbye
And the memories of you will end and be cast away
As the ink from this tool of my thoughts runs out

I'm saying goodbye

And the memories of you will end and be cast away
As the ink from this tool of my thoughts runs out

This is me saying goodbye to you
From this day forward I won't think about you
It has to be this way
My only remedy in dealing with you

Goodbye to you, goodbye to you
Goodbye to you, goodbye to you
