If it makes you, it takes you, I don't want to
If it makes you, scared in the bare anyway
If it makes you, I don't want to see your face
When you feel not alive

You're lying in bed with the pride of a lion
You are there, you are there
If you're shrewd enough to be underlined
You are there, you are there a world premiere

If it makes you, it takes you, I don't want to
If it makes you, stare in the bare anyway
If it's the last thing you do, if it's the last thing you do
If it's the last thing you do, plagerize

You're lying in bed, with the pride of a lion
You are there, you are there
Your shrewd enough to be underlined
You are there, you are there

Where's my [Incomprehensible]?
Where's my [Incomprehensible]?
A world premiere

You're lying in bed, with the pride of lion
Are you there? Are you there?
You're shrewd enough to be underlined
You are there, you are there, you are there

Mother said to me, take my advice please
And stand for one second up off your knees
We are not the competition
But we strive, we strive, to be number one
