I'm a shadow's fall.
I wanna know why, because I trusted you and because
I'm in love.
Why you and me?

Cold love.

I can't stand this no more.
The loss of someone so special.
The goods cannot be ignored.
And you're too close, now let me fade away.
Fade away.

I hope to see you again,
In a better time and in a better place.
So we can sit and talk like we used to.
And I see you know.

I can't stand this no more,
The loss of someone so special.
The goods cannot be ignored.
And you're too close, now let me fade away.
Fade away.

I hope to see you again,
In a better time and in a better place.
So we can sit and talk like we used to.
And I see you know.

I'm a shadow's fall.
I'm a shadow's fall.

I see you know,
I've killed the pain inside.
I can feel your hand inside mine.
As we walked toward the depth, toward lies.
I see you now, girl, with me.

I see you know the pain inside.
Walk of death.
Through the valley.
