Now let me interject about this little piece we have
And all the months passed drag em threw the mud, drag em threw the mud, dragging em down.
It helps me comment on virginity.
Help me find the price of humility.
As a matter of fact you owe me some
As a matter of fact you owe me(Your biggest fan).

And I guess,
And I guess,
And I confess,
I sometimes think im God,
Do I exist just to work for you?
It helps me comment on virginity.
Help me find the price of humility.
As a matter of fact you owe me some
As a matter of fact you owe me.

Cancer is the proof
We will be going nowhere soon
You're the reason why
Im always asking of you twice

Cancer is the proof
We will be going nowhere soon
You're the reason why
They're always doubting of us twice

Help me find the price of humility.
As a matter of fact you owe me some
As a matter of fact you owe me.
