Last Friday night I was shocked
I thought the world revolved around me
Every time we are together

But I'm still looking forward
To a guy with more potential
Just admit we're together

We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night

I feel like you're crazy
But I'm still looking for love
You think that I'm crazy
But I'm still looking for love

Hey, we went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night

I remember what happened on our date
Come on, come on, baby, you know what to say
Come on, girl, give me one more chance
One more chance at true romance

Come on, tell me how you feel
Come on, baby, come on, baby, let me heal
Just don't know what we should do
Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me, you

We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night

We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night
We went out last Friday night

Last Friday night
