About five o'clock in the late afternoon
Sun's gettin' drowsy above me
Tonight I walk neath the sparkling moon
With the girl who is happy to love me

She's my sweet country girl and she's all that I need
The whole world wears the smile when she's talking
Sweet country girl it's not hard to believe
Pretty flowers bloom wherever she's been walking

Shadows erase in the last light of day
Night time is startin' to settle
Red colored stone Lord is leading my way
To her cottage way down in the meadow
She's my sweet country girl

Green trees and golden hay
And sunshine here every day
Big cities far behind me
Well it's love with her to think I'm a gonna stay

About five o'clock in the late afternoon

She's my sweet country girl yes she is
She's my sweet country girl
And I love her she's my sweet country girl
