It's two down and I'm on my way to heartache number three.

What's an angel like you doin' way dow-own here
Lookin' right through me like a crystal chandelier
I've been so lonely and I tried not to show it
Well, I need someone so bad and girl I think you know it.

Oh Lord, help me, here I go again
Well, you gotta admit this is sure more fun than just bein' friends
Well, I can't help it mama you look so good to me
Well, it's two down and I'm on my way to heartache number three.

It takes longer every time for this ol' heart to mend
Will you love me forever or baby begin
Well, I know the truth lies way down under the surface
Well, I'm already gone and girl I hope you're worth it.

Oh Lord, help me, here I go again
Well, you gotta admit this is sure more fun than just bein' friends
Well, I can't help it mama you look so good to me
Well, it's two down and I'm on my way to heartache number three.

Well, I can't help it mama you look so good to me
Well, it's two down and I'm on my way yo heartache number three, yeah.

Well, I can't help it mama you look so good to me
Well, it's two down and I'm on my way to heartache number three, yeah...
