

Glen Campbell

"Home Again"

Visit "Home Again" on MotoLyrics.com

Home again I turned my collar to the wind started
home again
Home again a place where I can find the friends that's
home again
Well I've seen everything that I wanted to see And I finally see what's important to me I'm going home I'm going home Home again I've been too long upon my way this way don't pay
Home again too many names I can't recall it's coming home
Well I've done everything I thought I wanted to do When each step I took took me far away from you I'm going home I'm going home

Home again I can't extend by even time joys ain't crime Home again somehow I know there's time enough enough to love

Well I've had everything that I thought I would need Now I'm going home I'm gonna try my hand of freedom I'm going home I'm going home I'm going home

Visit Glen Campbell page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.