I am barely aware when I talk too much
So easy for me to get out of touch
Though I'll miss my part in the show
You'll do much better sir if you let me go

There is something that you want me to be
It's impossible, can't you see?
For the sake of the world, just forget about me

(Well you've reached the decline of the subject's art)
So you won't be surprised when I miss my mark
Like a slow mo airplane crash
You see what's coming next, but you can't turn back

There is something that you want me to be
It's impossible, can't you see?
For the sake of the world, forget about me

There's a scared look in your eye
But I warned you now, didn't I?
There's a big sign on the front of the cage
So if you've been bit, it's yourself you should blame

There is something that you want me to be
It's impossible, can't you see?
For the sake of the world, forget about me
So for the sake of us all, I've gotta leave
Forget about me
