I am barely aware when I talk too much
It's so easy for me to get out of touch
Though I'll miss my part in the show
You'll be much better served if you let me go

There is something that you want me to be
It's impossible, can't you see?
For the sake of the world, just forget about me

We've reached the decline of the subject's art
So you won't be surprised when you miss my mark
Like a slow-mo airplane crash
You see what's coming next, but you can't turn back

There is something that you want me to be
It's impossible, can't you see?
For the sake of the world, just forget about me

There's a scared look in your eye
But I warned you now, didn't I?
There's a big sign on the front of the cage
So if you've been bit, in yourself you should blame

Yeah, there is something that you want me to be
It's impossible, but can't you see?
For the sake of the world, now I believe
So for the sake of us all, just forget about me
Just Forget about me
