Angela, she is a good friend
On her faith I can rely
She's an american woman
Born on the 4th of july

She don't want no philosophy
She just need photography
She was raised in poverty
Now why did u change your name?

Angela, is it true that what they say, u made the grade?
Angela, I can see your face in the motorcade
Angela, I'm so glad that it happened 4 u
Angela, you're a rock 'n roll star like u wanted

Angela, she come from georgia

She had an unusual sound
She played in the bars in atlanta
And she killed them in london town

She don't want no philosophy
She just need photography
She was raised in poverty
Now why did u change your name?

Angela, is it true that what they say, u made the grade?
Angela, I can see your face in the motorcade
Angela, I'm so glad that it happened 4 u
Angela, you're a rock 'n roll star like u wanted
