There is no softer voice
You are my angel of the morning
You are my only choice
This must be heaven, I hear you callin'

One touch is all I need
You got me beggin' on my hands and my knees
One look, now I can see
I've gotta break away from these chains

You're the only one
The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for real

I need you next to me
I need your body closer against my skin
I can hardly wait
You just can't hide my love, won't you let me in?

One touch is all I need
You got me beggin' on my hands and my knees
One look, now I can see
I've gotta break away from these chains

You're the only one

The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for real

You're the only one
The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for real, only one

One touch is all I need
You got me beggin' on my hands and my knees
One look, now I can see
I've gotta break away from these chains

You're the only one

The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for real

You're the only one
The only one who makes me feel
You're the only one
The only one who is for real

You're the only
The only, the only, the only one
The only one
The only one I love
