Now that you're far away
I can see everything so clear
Now that you're really gone
I can feel you like you're standing here

And if I had another chance to say goodbye
I would just say thank you for the times we spent
And not to cry, 'cause I'm

Still watching over you
Though we're far apart
You'll never really be
So far from my heart
I'm watching over you
I've looked inside my dreams
And everything I see
You watching over me

How can we lose our way
If we just let ourselves be led
And maybe it hurts today
But tomorrow we'll come out ahead

I don't want to lose you so I'll let you go
And if it ends up we are meant to meet again
We'll let each other know
'Cause I'm...

Still watching over you
Though we're far apart
You'll never really be
So far from my heart
I'm watching over you
I've looked inside my dreams
And everything I see
You watching over me

Instrumental break

I don't want to lose you so I'll let you go
And if it ends up we are meant to meet again
We'll let each other know

Iâm watching over you
Though weâre far apart
Youâll never be
So far from my heart
Iâm watching over you
Iâve looked inside my dreams
And everything I see
You watching over me
