(Bob Ray, Jay Burton and Irving Green)
(vocals: Ray Eberle)

I find myself a stone's throw from heaven
All by myself and no sign of heaven
I built my castles, now they've tumbled,
Tumbled right on my heart
Did our love die a stone's throw from heaven
Was our goodbye a goodbye to heaven
Was love a bubble that was broken
Like the break in my heart?

Why can't this only be a dream,
A movie or a play?
Love would then somehow find a scheme
To make your heart meet mine halfway

Must I remain a stone's throw from heaven,
Never again to ever know heaven?
Still I would wait for you forever
To start all over again
