(Johnny Burke/James Van Heusen)
(vocals: Ray Eberle)

A country dance was being held in a garden
I felt bump & heard an, "Oh beg your pardon."
Suddenly I saw polka dots & moonbeams all around a pugnosed dream
The music started & was I the perplexed one I held my breath & said, "May I have the next one?"
In my frightened arms polka dots & moonbeams sparkled on a pugnosed dream

There were questions in the eyes of other the dancers
As we floated the over the floor
There were questions but my heart knew all the answers
And perhaps a few things more
Now in a cottage built of lilacs & laughter
I know the meaning of the words ever after And I'll always see polka dots & moonbeams when I kiss the pugnosed dream
