The Call Of The Canyon

Glenn Miller

Written by Billy Hill.

As recorded by the Glenn Miller Orchestra on August 8th 1940 with Ray Eberle.

Just a melancholy echo
Lingring when the day is through
Its the call of the canyon
Once again Im dreaming of you
Every night I search the moonlight
Up and down the river shore
Its the call of the canyon
Maybe I will see you once more

Standing there alone by the ashes
Of the fire we said would never die
Will I ever find an ember
Burning from the days gone by...?

Then I hear a lonely whisper
As a little spark I see
Its the call of the canyon
Bringing back your answer to me!
