Spare us the rescue
We're not lost, we just go where we want.
Spare us the rescue
When we're old, we'll grow deep, and we'll seek twice as long.
Spare us the rescue.
I can walk, I can walk on my own two knees.
It takes, takes some dying, to feel alive.

Spare us the rescue
A friend in need is a friend I don't need.
Spare us the rescue
We've made peace with our lovely disease
Spare us the rescue
Crawl out of my tunnel vision to find, it all, all went, all went wrong, but it feels alright.

Did we enjoy ourselves, when we destroyed ourselves?
Whatever happens, we're fine.
We're on our last life, we'll make no compromise.
Whatever happens, we're fine.

Spare us the rescue
Back on the street, a mile up in the sky.
Spare us the rescue
I'm close with my demons, there's no need to hide.
Spare us the rescue
I've won ever since I need new words to shine.

It takes, takes some dying, to feel alive.

Did we enjoy ourselves, when we destroyed ourselves?
Whatever happens, we're fine.
We're on our last life, we'll make no compromise.
Whatever happens, we're fine.

Where have we been? where will go be, so far.
I'm not not distant, but this distance makes all the difference to me.
Who have we been? who will we be, so far?
And my misery, no, we're perfectly comfortable here.
