Watch her inhibitions falling to the floor. Notice how you lock the door
What would you love to do? Here in this hotel room together and alone
I want you to put on a show. What would you love to do?
What would you love to say? what would you love?

Princess I just wanna witness. Watch you severing that velvet
I won't say the word- say the word Watch you in the mirror. The Way you touch yourself Your hips to your fingertips. What would you love to do?
Don't be so impatient. Don't lose self control I'll make the rules as we go. What would you love to do?
What would you love to say? What would you love?
Princess I just wanna witness. Watch you severing that
velvet
I won't say the word- say the word. Princess I just wanna witness Watch you slip right outta that dress I won't say the word- say the word.
