"Love The Virgins"

Oh yes it's true we play
Can't fool yourself again
Your caught up in the counting lies
So look around look around

There's a part of us you've found
A beauty sinking ships oh yes
And then I wanted your love under the covers

And then you want it again just to discover
Well I can't tell a lie I think it's perfect

I'm falling falling again loving the virgins
So well aware of the stare and the mystery it airs
The swagger is the only sign

So close your eyes close your eyes
Well you might as well be blind

Such a foolish game we play
Lovers in the backroom I just can't understand why
Murders in the backwoods I just can't deceive your lies
