There's a part of me that's dying
Every time I hear your name
There's a part of me that's trying
To bring back your love again

There are times when I just want to run
But there's no place to hide
Even though my heart is breaking
In a million bits inside

I can make believe none of this is true
But I can't forget you, can't break free
I've only got myself to blame
Nothing feels the same without you

Can't you see
We can find tomorrow
We lost yesterday
We lost yesterday

There are nights when I lay wide awake
Thinking how good it could be
Other nights I don't feel worthy
Of the love you gave to me

I remember not too long ago
We both were here to stay
But it seems it happened overnight
When I threw it all away

I can walk away and find somebody new
But I can't forget you, can't break free
I've only got myself to blame
Nothing feels the same without you

Can't you see
We can find tomorrow
We lost yesterday
We lost yesterday

Hope that I can make you love me once again
'Cause I can't forget you, can't break free

I've only got myself to blame
Nothing feels the same without you

Can't you see
We can find tomorrow
We lost yesterday
We lost yesterday

But I can't forget you
I can't forget you
