"Into You"

I feel the blood inside of me ~ moving faster than ever ~ every time i dare to think ~ of you and me here together ~ i can feel your hands unleash ~ the fettered thoughts of my mind ~ every thrill you care to seek ~ i'll make sure that you find ~ into you, i will find a way ~ don't be scared to come out and play ~ into you there's a passageway ~ where i'll vanish without a trace ~

i feel the sweetest agony ~ growing stronger than ever ~ i see you standing on the brink ~ once you jump you'll be better ~ underneath the urgency where there's nothing but time ~ i'll take you down and let you drink ~ of the headiest wine ~

into you, i will find a way ~ don't be scared to come out
and play ~ into you there's a passageway ~ where i'll
vanish without a trace ~

breath it in ~ it's getting more intense ~ we're only the sum ~ of our experience
