(after love is gone)

? saying what's on your mind
Don't hold back think if it would be kind
Life goes on and on after love is gone
Don't bother now with apologise
No tear full of ? , no sad memories
Life goes on and on after love is gone
I never knew you although I tried
You always kept your feelings inside
All I needed was someone to confide,
Someone to be always by my side

No painful sins, no ? guys
No world full of excuses, no planed alibies
Life goes on and on after love is gone

I never knew you although I tried
You always kept your feelings inside
All I needed was someone to confide,
Someone to be always by my side
No ? ? to ?
When love is alive it's not worth the while
Life goes on and on after love is gone
Life goes on and on (after love is gone)

Life goes on and on (after love is gone)
Life goes on and on (after love is gone)
Life goes on and on (after love is gone)
Life goes on and on (after love is gone)
