Simple dreams created by the passion
In a place I'd never been before
Letter perfect expectations of a love affair
That's what I found when I fell in love with you

History has been established
Here and now, soon will come to pass
Stolen moments that will never come to be again
Baby I'm just tryin' to make those moments last

Blinded by the light of your love
Born again with the kiss
From your lips, oh baby
Makin' up our own illusions as we go along
But it's no illusion, baby we're in love
Yes, we're in love

Far beyond my imagination
There's a world big enough for two
Read my mind and tell what is missin', baby
Can't you see that you're my dream come true?
If I wanna get to Heaven I won't have to go so far
'Cause I found Heaven when I saw the light of you, you,
you

Blinded by the light of your love
Born again with the kiss
From your lips, oh baby, baby
Blinded by the light of your love
(I'm blinded by the light of love)
Born again with a kiss

Blinded by the light of your love
Born again with a kiss
From your lips, oh baby, baby, baby
Blinded by the light of your love
(I'm blinded by the light of love)
Born again with a kiss

From your lips, from your lips, from your lips
Blinded by the light of your love
(Blinded by the light of love)

Born again with a kiss
From your lips, oh baby, baby, baby
Blinded by the light of your love
(I'm blinded by the light of love)

Born again with a kiss
From your lips, from your lips
Blinded by the light of love, blinded
(I'm blinded by the light of love)
(By the light of your love, baby)
Blinded by the light of love, blinded
(Yes, I'm blinded blinded blinded blinded blinded)
(By the light of your love)
Blinded by the light of love, blinded
