Ain't much for promises
But I'm a fool for your sweet caress
Don't mean to be obsessed
But all that I can do is guess

And when I miss you
I try to keep my head
But when I kiss you
My heart speaks out instead

Say do you say, won't you say you love me
Say do you say, that you need me still
Say won't you say that we'll stay together
Say we always will

And if it's someone else
I'd rather be just by myself
Your honesty would help
Right now it seems so hard to tell

Don't wanna worry
But is our love alive
I'm in a hurry
My feelings I can't hide

Say do you say, won't you say you love me
Say do you say, that you need me still
Say won't you say that we'll stay together
Say we always will

Faithfully yours my love is real, babe
If that is what you want then I'll be there
'Cause I feel so sure this is the real thing
My heart with you will stay, yeah

Say do you say
Say do you say
Say won't you say that we'll stay together
Say we always will

And when I miss you
I try to keep my head

'Cause when I kiss you
My heart speaks out instead

Say do you say, won't you say you love me
Say do you say, that you need me still
Say won't you say that we'll stay together
Say we always will

Say do you say, won't you say you love me
Say do you say, that you need me still
Say won't you say that we'll stay together
Say we always will

Say do you say
Say do you say
Say won't you say that we'll stay together
Say we always will
Say do you say, won't you say you love me
