Don't you know, do my revenge
Beyond the hill of fantasy
Ha, tell ya, take care of you
Beware of his magical plan

It hurts, burns your soul
Breaks your mind
Never believe, never, never
Believe the tales of mystical force

Please, save us
Bring us his trembling heart
Please, save us
Bring us his trembling heart

Black hill castle there in the dark
Hear the thunder, watch the spark
Ha ha ha, can't you see?
Way of life, it's [Incomprehensible]

I saw his sinister face
Speaks your name, don't listen
Otherwise you're part of the scene

Please save us
Bring us his trembling heart
Please save us

He takes you from the ground
And takes you higher and higher
His magic's all around
His eyes are burning like fire

He takes you from the ground
And takes you higher and higher
His magic's all around
His eyes are burning like fire

Don't you know, do my revenge
Beyond the hill of fantasy
Ha, tell ya, take care of you
Beware of his magical plan

It hurts, burns your soul
It breaks your mind
Never believe, never, never
Believe the tales of mystical force

Please save us
Bring us his trembling heart
Please save us

He takes you from the ground
And takes you higher and higher
His magic's all around
His eyes are burning like fire

He takes you from the ground
And takes you higher and higher
His magic's all around
His eyes are burning like fire

He takes you from the ground
And takes you higher and higher
His magic's all around
His eyes are burning like fire

He takes you from the ground
And takes you higher and higher
His magic's all around
His eyes are burning like fire

He takes you from the ground
And takes you higher and higher
