Blind, blinded by the light
Nothing can I see
All the whisper got me to the place I want to be
If you take my hand
Insecurity all the things that bind us to the enemy

What has become of the beautiful
I've waited all my life to see
All I see is an ugly world
No way to hide and no way out

When I open my eyes I am in the dark
With all the darkness around me
So help me I want to be blind
How could I be so wrong
How could you be so right

Just the same old scenario
No one is going to see
See what you want to see
How could you be so blind

Why, why do you turn away
Everything you see
All the product of the life you lived in empathy

What has become of the beautiful
I've waited all my life to see
All I see is an ugly world
No way to hide and no way out

When I open my eyes I am in the dark
With all the darkness around me
So help me I want to be blind
How could I be so wrong
How could you be so right

Just the same old scenario
No one is going to see
See what you want to see
How could you be so blind

Blind

(Solo)

(Spanish vocal)

(Esta noche soy ciego y no quiero vivir, este mundo no es el que conocÃ, hoy las rosas se visten de negro por ti)

How could you be so blind
With all the darkness around me
So help me I want to be blind
How could I be so wrong
How could you be so right
Just the same old scenario
No one is going to see
See what you want to see
How could you be so blind (x5)
