What you say, what you feel
Is it so hard to keep it real
There's a place for you to go
Cause you're guilty, guilty

I can't help you anymore
You 'gotta cut it to the core
Please don't say that it's a game
You can't live your life this way

Things are never what they seemed
Living life just like a dream
Never painful, troublefree
All the dussin, you will see

What you say, what you feel
Is it so hard to keep it real
There's a place for you to go
Cause you're guilty, guilty

What you give, is what you get
If you don't share and show regret
You can't keep it for yourself
Cause you're guilty, guilty

Taking chances everyday
Simply throwing life away
Is there no place for empathy
For one who claims there are so free

There'll be no light for you to see
There'll be no air for you to breathe
If you treat everyone the same
Loneliness will find your name

What you say, what you feel
Is it so hard to keep it real
There's a place for you to go
Cause you're guilty, guilty

What you give, is what you get

If you don't share and show regret
You can't keep it for yourself
Cause you're guilty, guilty

I face a new transition
Just a main admission
That gets me through my day
I've gotta one ambition
Never give in to what you say
I've gotta one specific
Cleverly politic way I wanna go
I'm gonna catch your attention
Ignore your convention, to really let you know

What you say, what you feel
Is it so hard to keep it real
There's a place for you to go
Cause you're guilty, guilty

What you give, is what you get
If you don't share and show regret
You can't keep it for yourself
Cause you're guilty, guilty
