Visit "Never Change" on MotoLyrics.com

Not a day has gone by that I could ever say
That you've been unfair to me
Not a day will go by that I will ever say
That your promises aren't true
There's one thing I know I can rest assured
You never change
When everything around is changing
I can count on, I can count on you
When everything I know has failed me
I can trust in, I can trust in you
Cause you're the only one that's true
Will that ever, will that ever change
No oh No oh that will never change
No oh no oh that will never change
My hope is in the one who holds the world
And all things that change today
Proclaim how you stay
You stay the same, You always stay
You never ever change
