Step by step we are born again
Disconnected, we separate our lives from...
Kill the sound with a farrot wire
Set a stage and clear the air

Taste the kiss of the embrace as you let go
Rip out your heart, hold the embers high
You are blinded by the monument
Nothing will ever feel this way again
You shaped my life in your eyes, changed me more than you could know

[Chorus:]

Draw in a breathe and you love the way it burns
It's like a thousand gentle kisses
Draw in a breathe and you love the way it burns

I'm afraid to let it go

Exhale and strike a chord, exhale with such a force
I shatter the crystal, I shatter the crystal nd step up to shine
Dazzled by your lights I spin around and around

[Chorus]

So taste the kiss of the embrace as you let go
Rip out your heart, hold the embers high
You are blinded by the monument
Taste the kiss, rip out your heart
Nothing will feel this way again
Draw in a breathe
Nothing will feel this way again

[Chorus]

Don't let it slip away
