

Glory Of This "Loose Lips Sinks Ships"

Visit "Loose Lips Sinks Ships" on MotoLyrics.com

Truth holds the very foundation we're based on Every word that passes over your lips is a reason to doubt
It's hard to carry on, I can't rely on this It's just too hard to earn your trust I have my own battles to fight
With no help I'll still survive

Uncensored, there's nothing holding you back
You have no excuse to hold your breath
What's said is said, don't regress
Look at the big picture, silence is best.
Grind your teeth at the thought of someone believing Choose your own way and you won't have to follow

Wake up and open your eyes
Lies build walls that you can't climb too far from reach.
I can't imagine how nice I'd be if you spoke the truth, so goodbye
You'd get so far, if honesty was a value not a task, so I'll see you

Reaching up to the sky for the answers, dishonesty runs deeper than blood
I can't believe that things turned out this way
