Remember lying side by side

All through a summer night

Time goes by, Oh how it flies

The memories of crazy nights

Are they just a dream

Did the feeling grow

Feeling high and low

You didn't want to change

You're poisoned by a fairy tale

Stolen from your sleep

Stolen from your destiny

[Chorus]

On and on

For more and more

Heaven is a place for no-one or everyone

On and on

For more and more

Heaven is a place for no-one or everyone

Remember when we used to say

Our ways should never part

I thought you were the one

But now those days are gone

Now we're running out of time

Who knows the reason why

And I hear you say

The things I said today

You didn't want to change

You're poisoned by a fairy tale

Stolen from your dreams

Stolen from your destiny

[Chorus]

On and on

For more and more

Heaven is a place for no-one or everyone

On and on

For more and more

Heaven is a place for someone else

Heaven is a place for no-one else

Heaven is another place for you and me

On and on

For more and more

Heaven is a place for no-one or everyone

On and on

For more and more

Heaven is a place for someone else

Heaven is a place for no-one else

Heaven is another place for you and me
