Girl, your love is like a cure
I've never been so sure
That you are the one
I want to stay by your side
'Cause in the darkest night
You make me feel so strong

I miss you today
I'll miss you tomorrow
I wish I could stay
My heart feels so hollow

I hope and I pray
That you feel no sorrow
I'm gone today
And I'm still gone tomorrow

Girl, you used to start to cry
When I said goodbye
Please remember I'll be back
I feel like I do belong
To you, yes we are one
We're on the right track

But now the fall winds blow
That means I have to go
