Why do you point your finger at me
You see my faults, but you don't ever make an effort to help With your creeds, you measure my heart But no matter how hard you tried, you could not save yourself You can't earn this gift, only accept it Why do I point my finger at you I see your faults, but I don't ever make an effort to help
With my creeds, I measure your heart But no matter how hard I tried, I could not save myself Let me fix you,
I'll use my hands, wash your sins pure You'll look so good through mans' eyes and then I'll get paid for my good deed Love is the higher law no matter what lies at hand
We cannot work our way to enter the promised land of milk and honey, all he wants is for you to know who he is
