all I can remember is how proud you were of me don't listen to them someday they will eat their words you'll see
but you forgot to tell me how painful this would be
and you forgot to tell me how to get back up on my feet again
my one track mind screaming "up!" there was no such thing as who, what, where, and why I'm gonna go

your forgot to tell me how long this would take
and you forgot to tell me
I'd be regretting a lot of mistakes
When I fall down
When I fall down
